

CHEVERS BACK FROM OMAHA

U. P. Officials See Early Swing Upward, Ogden Agent Asserts

Farmers and business men of the middle west expect a revival in trade conditions during the summer months, said W. H. Chevers, general agent here of the Union Pacific system, who has just returned from Omaha, where he attended a conference of Union Pacific officials from all parts of the United States.

At the Omaha conference the commercial outlook was the chief topic of discussion, Mr. Chevers stated today. The expansion of the Union Pacific system in the traffic, passenger and refrigerator service was also discussed.

The conference opened last Monday and closed Wednesday evening.

Mr. Chevers was the only Ogden representative at the conference.

"Officials of the Union Pacific from all over the United States are looking forward to an early betterment of conditions," said Mr. Chevers today.

"Farmers in the middle west are anticipating record crops in corn and wheat and have made preparations accordingly. Business men are also looking forward to banner campaigns."

PETER COLLINS TO SPEAK IN OGDEN

The 1921-22 Knights of Columbus campaign against extreme radicalism will be brought home to the citizens of Ogden when Peter W. Collins, well known industrial expert and lecturer on sociological and economic subjects will appear at the Ogden tabernacle on Wednesday, May 3, at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the Ogden council of K. of C.

Mr. Collins is a leader in the corps of K. of C. lecturers engaging in the nation-wide offensive of the K. of C. against conducting organized radicalism.

Serving as an industrial expert with the government during the war, and as an active labor executive for many years before the war, he has come into contact with every phase of the sociological-economic problems that confront the United States. His evidence before the New York state assembly during the investigation into the activities of Socialist members of that assembly was one of the features of the most sensational legislative inquiry ever conducted in the United States.

LASHING ORDERED FOR IRISH ROBBER

BELFAST, April 28.—(By The Associated Press).—Fifteen lashes with the cat o' nine tails and three years penal servitude has been ordered by a Belfast judge in the case of Frederick Lennon, convicted of robbery with violence.

The use of the cat has been strongly advocated as punishment for looting, but this is the first instance where it is to be applied. Tarring and feathering of miscreants by the Irish republican army in the Falls district ruled in the stoppage of looting there.

"The Different Revue" Tops Entertaining Bill at Pantages

"The Different Revue," premier act on the Pantages vaudeville program at the Orpheum theatre this week-end, drew the audiences into uproarious laughter at the opening performances Thursday. Marked by the impersonation by Herbert Crowley and nine sailor boys of dainty young women, the action sometimes approaches reality and again enters the realm of burlesque, but throughout their act the tars maintain a constant flow of humor. As they say, the revue is different and to the majority of the audience vastly entertaining.

Though it's an art centuries old, the marionettes in the miniature revue "Play Ball," also formed a somewhat novel attraction to Ogden theatregoers.

Just how they make the dolls act so lifelike when suspended on strings is quite a question, but old and young alike were delighted. The revue is presented by Little Jewel Faulkner and company with quite an interesting stage setting.

Ranking high among the farcical sketches of the year's vaudeville is "The Untrained Nurse" in which Victor Burns and Adelaide Wilson appear.

As the title indicates, the scene is the chief physician's office in a large hospital and the unsophisticated notions and actions of the little nurse bring out gales of laughter.

Adams, Saunders and Robinson, two ducky men and an attractive girl, well earn the title of jazz syncopators de luxe for they can take an ordinary song hit of the day and turn it into something entrancingly tuneful.

The opening act is given by the Zora Carmen trio who make hoops do everything but sit up and talk.

Another good moving picture comedy, Mack Sennett's "Duck Hunters," is a fast moving affair which sends the audience away in a pleasant frame of mind.

STRIKING MINERS ARE FORCED TO BEG

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 28.—First indications of privation and want in the coke regions were apparent here Thursday when a large delegation of striking miners and members of their families from Mount Braddock visited Connelville and solicited material assistance.

The delegation said the miners had not worked for about 25 days, that their funds had run out and that they were in want. Townspeople said they obtained a considerable amount of money, foodstuffs and a number of other provisions and a number of articles of clothing.

The shortage of nickel coins in France is said to be due to the peasants hoarding them in preference to paper money.
